

REFLECTION FOR THE SECIND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Please note that this is the last reflection of the year. It is suggested that four members of your group reads aloud one of the four passages of Scripture and after each one, group members take the time to read the passage to themselves and choose one word, phrase or sentence that has special meaning for them and give the reason for their choice.

Isaiah 63: 16-17; 64:1. 3-8 Psalm 79: 2-3. 15-16.18-19 Corinthians1: 3-9

Mark 13:33-37

Opening prayer: Ever-loving God, as we gather for our final time this year, we look back with gratitude on the time we have spent studying your word. We ask you to help us to use some of our holiday break to continue to read and refresh ourselves from the Scriptures so that we can come together again next year to draw ever closer to you through prayer and discussion. Please bless us with your grace. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
